Dear Herlan/Herlong Cousins: I attended the 300th Anniversary Celebration in Friedrichstal as I was making my 6th visit there (and other places in Germany) from 24 June to 15 July 1999. The only other Americans that I saw were my wife Nancy Burck and Catheryn Dippo (this is an American version of the Friedrichstal family name Thibaut) of Maryland who recently published the church records of Friedrichstal from 1698 to 1812 from Heritage Books, Inc. (email me if you want purchase details). It was a hot but wonderful week to spend with cousins and other Friedrichstalers. Our first night of the celebration was 8 July at the Sängerhalle (which they recently built in Friedrichstal (with no air conditioning). All the children came in with candles representing our ancestors and placed them in a Huguenot cross so that the cross glowed. Then they had a variety entertainment which included groups singing songs, a band, and reading the story of our ancestors leaving France for Gemany and acting out parts inbetween readings (which was all in German but I got the idea of what was going on) and each person attending the event lit a candle in front of them to commemorate their ancestors. There were drinks served before and during the event and a dinner afterward but I cousins with whom I was staying did not stay for that. On Friday, 9 July were various events throughout the day. The next night, 10 July, there was a Herlan family meeting and dinner. One of the oldest cousins announced they were paying for each meal so everyone was delighted. I descend from Johann Herlan who was born in 1753 in Friedrichstal and have been working on locating all of his descendants for several years. Many of those descendants were in attendance and I passed my Family Tree Maker printout of the descendants to their delight and many contributed much more information. It was a night of jokes, songs, announcements, etc. but not much genealogy other than my contribution. It was good to see so many Herlans together at one time. It was a fun evening at the Vogelpark (which is a bird park with a meeting hall and playground which is located next to the only stream that runs through Friedrichstal (the stream is the Heglach? I think it is called)

All events were held is the biggest tent I ever saw which was located in the church yard, along with several other booths and and tables and umbrellas, etc. Beer and other drinks and many food items were available for the entire week long event. There were drinks served before and during the event and a dinner afterward but I cousins with whom I was staying did not stay for that. On Friday, 9 July were various events throughout the day. The next night, 10 July, there was a Herlon family meeting and dinner. One of the oldest cousins announced they were paying for each meal as everyone was delighted. I descend from Johann Herlon who was born in 1753 in Friedrichstal and have been working on locating all of his descendants for several years. Many of those descendants were in attendance and I passed my Family Tree Maker printout of the descendants to their delight and many contributed much more information. It was a night of jokes, songs, announcements, etc. but not much genealogy other than my contribution. It was good to see so many Herlons together at one time. It was a fun evening at the Vogelpark (which is a bird park with a meeting hall and playground which is located next to the only stream that runs through Friedrichstal (the stream is the Hegbach? I think it is called).

All events were held in the biggest tent I ever saw which was located in the church yard, along with several other booths and tables and umbrellas, etc. Beer and other drinks and many food items were available for the entire week long event. Several souvenirs where sold. They had flags with a large F on them (About 35 DM) that were displayed on most houses and businesses. They had a gold and a silver commemorative coin for sale (I just bought the silver one (About 49 DM) and a watch that said Friedrichstal with a chip of stone from the church renovation embedded in the face (About 99 DM) and Coffee Mugs (About 5 DM) and a set of 4 Post Cards (About 1 DM each) and I brought home several signs and posters and about 100 photographs. At night they had bands for the younger groups in the tent. The church was renovated for the event. They painted the church and added all new gutters and downspouts and new entrance door sills and paving stones at all entrances outside and a new cornerstone with the date the church was built in 1830. I went up in the church tower for the first time and saw the clock mechanism and the bells. On Saturday (daytime) we just visited the tent area several times and they had events. On Sunday, 11 July, we attended church which was packed, even many Catholics attended and the priest participated in the service, There were chairs in the hallways and even in the narthex. There was a band and a big choir plus another choir that came in to sing. It was all very nice. Then all the dignitaries laid a wreath by the monuments to the soldiers from the Franco-Prussian War of 1870 and WW I and WW II outside of the church. Some of these dignitaries were from from Friedrichstal's sister cities in France and Hungary. Then it was time for the big parade, which I have on video with 63 or 73 (I forget) parade entries. It was similar to and American parade but many more historical floats and items such as old-time occupations, the a float with a model of the hunters castle known as Stutensee (which means Horse Lake) which is located nearby, a float with a model of the original Reformed church and another float with a replica of an original Friedrichstal house, etc. One thing that was unusual to me was the practice of the city workers dropping off large branches of trees all along the parade route and then residents taking them and tying them to the front of their houses to make the route look more like the forest. The parade was almost 2 hours and we watched it twice. We could see alot better the second time as many people left for the tent area. All had to pay 3 DM for the entrance fee for any and all events which was a onetime price for the entire week. You received a plastic Friedrichstal pin to wear for proof of payment. Several other events were going on also, the Heimat (Village)Museum was open free all week and the police were marking bicycles for identification, and a machine to demonstrate a 5 mile per hour crash was there to promote seat belt use, and a group weaving baskets, etc. They even had American-looking carnival trailers with darts and other games to win junky prizes and cotton candy, etc. With your Friedrichstal button you also had free transportation from neighboring village Blankenloch to Karlsruhe or Ettlingen or to the north edge of the Black Forest and we went to Ettlingen on 12 July. The Strassenbahn (street train) will probably be built to Friedrichstal by our next visit in a few years. Well those are some of my memories just off the top of my head. I wish you could have all been there. I any of you want to see any and all of these items, come to my house in Cincinnati. (the photos, the video, the 300th anniversary items, etc.) (My ancestor was Friedrike Herlan who married Johann Konrad Bürck, who was born in Ziegelhausen near Heidelberg, and they married in Friedrichstal in 1844. Their son Johannes came to Cincinnati in 1866 and others followed). Kenny Burck

Hello all HERLONG researchers-

If you are reading the Orangeburg List, you already know that Gene Jefferies is in process of updating the Orangeburg Family Files. The web site was extremely helpful to me and I gained a great amount of information on my family tree there. Because of this I have VOLUNTEERED to do the editing (coordinate the editing) on the HERLONG file.

PLEASE HELP ME and I need all the help I can get. As much of my information came from this site, my major contribution will be froof reading. Because it is the Orangeburg, SC list, the only people that should be included should have an Orangeburg connection.

Please e-mail your corrections and changes to me so I can combine all changes and then send them on to Gene. He is doing over 140 family names so this will be a big help. If you know anyone else doing research on the Herlong's, please pass this on to them so they can help with the process.
My e-mail address is ginh@msn.com <mailto:ginh@msn.com>

Descendants of Isaac HERLAN - 17 Aug 1999

FIRST GENERATION

1. Isaac HERLAN was born in Flanders, Germany. Fath. Pierre Herlan

Isaac HERLAN and Marie BOURQUAIN had the following children:

+2 i. Susanne HERLONG.

Isaac HERLAN and Marie Jeanne DELONG had the following children:

+3 i. Jacob HERLONG.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Susanne HERLONG was born on 23 Feb 1721 in Eschelbach, Baden, Germany. She died on 27 Nov 1757 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina. She was buried on 28 Nov 1757 in Orangeburgh, South Carolina. 1757 On Sunday Novembr 27th died in Child Bed and on Monday Novr 28th was enterred in the Plantation of Abraham Dupuis in Orangeburgh the Body of Susannah, wife of the said Abraham

Dupuis, aged 37 years, 9 months . (Rev. Giessendanner)

She was married to Abraham DUPUIS Junr. (son of Abraham DUPUIS Senr. and Susanne GORENFLO) on 15 Nov 1746 in Eschelbach, Baden, Germany. In his bounty petition he stated that he had a wife (unnamed) and one child, Hester aged 4, I assume to be a female. He was granted 150 acres "on the bounty" between the Savannah and Santee Rivers. Also, in his request for the bounty he stated that "he had come with his friends and relations" to this country. Therefore, I believe we can conclude that his country of origin was Germany and probably the Wurttemberg or Baden area. Source-Council Journal Vol. 20 II page 432 20-Oct-1752. I think this name probably became Dupree in later years. [DH] Susanne HERLONG and Abraham DUPUIS Junr. had the following children:

4 i. Esther DUPUIS was born on 4 Nov 1747 in Friedrichstal, Karlsruhe, Baden, Germany. This is the child "Hester" who was named in her father's petition for land.
5 ii. Elizabeth DUPUIS was born on 20 Feb 1750 in Friedrichstal, Karlsruhe, Baden, Germany. No death record is found in the Friedrichstal church records so it is assumed that Elizabeth died on the trip to South Carolina prior to the 20 Oct 1752 petition of her father for land. Dear Melanie,

I too am really glad to find a new relative and fellow Friedrichstaller.

The book on Friedrichstal is in the Salt Lake Library but it is not on film. I got my book in 1989. Some German friends ordered it for me and also payed so I don't know how much it cost. The adress is

Burgermeisteramt Stutensee
Verwaltungsstelle
7513 Stutensee-Friedrichstal

I think that the book was ordered before the wall came down so I'm not sure if the zip code is right. You could probably post a question to the Baden-Wurttemberg group. The full title is "Friedrichstal Geschichte einer Hugenotten Gemeinde" by Oskar Hornung published in 1974. Stuart Herlan made an index of the book. If you get the book I'll be happy to copy it and send it to you.

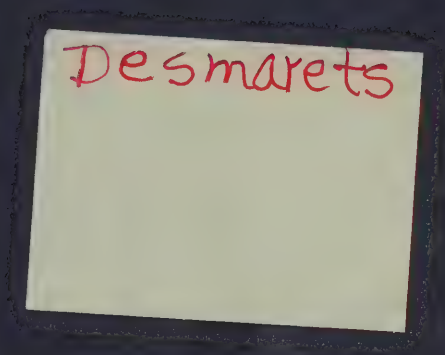
On page 163 & 164 in the book it says: Jean Baptiste Desmarets jr married Susanne Gorenflo, daughter of the 1st Friedrichstaler mayor Jacques Gorenflo. Desmarets died at 34 years and his widow then married the then mayor Abraham Dupuis. I guess that's what you're looking for. I come from the Jean Baptiste Desmarets line.

We were in Friedrichstal for a very short time (only hours) in 1989 and I took pictures of the church. It is really quite pretty. Let me know if you'd like copies and I'll send them to you. I checked and still have the negatives. I also have a small pedigree chart that I got from Germany. I'll send that also just let me know you'r adress.

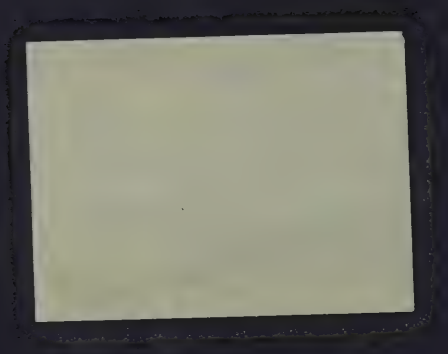
I also use PAF version 3.0.

I'm running out of room so I'll write more late.

Marilyn



Desmarets



Desmarets (Demarez), Jean Baptiste "et Rebèca Erlant (Herlan) außi de Friderichstal[1]" hielten 1704 den Säugling Rebéca, Tochter des Jean Pierre Girod und der Susanne Bonnet, wohnhaft in Friedrichstal, über das Taufbecken. Am letzten Tag des genannten Jahres gab der in Graben amtierende Amtmann Hemeling seine Zustimmung zur Eheschließung der erwähnten Taufpaten Jean Baptiste Desmarais und Susanne Gorenflo, achtzehnjährige Tochter des ersten Schultheißen der "Colonie Fridrichsthal"[2].

Nach der Hochzeit fand das junge Paar bei den Eltern der frisch getrauten Ehefrau auf dem Carlsbacherhof Unterkunft und Beschäftigung in der 65 Morgen großen Landwirtschaft, die von dem Schultheißen und seinen Söhnen betrieben wurde. In den gemeinsamen Ehejahren wurden 1707[3] die Tochter Marie Johanna und 1713[4] der Sohn Adam Jaques geboren. Jean Baptiste starb 1714[5] auf dem Carlsbacherhof nach einer kurzen Krankheit von 8 Tagen. Die Witwe Susanne ehelichte im Oktober des Sterbejahres Abraham Dupuis.

Die 1707 geborene Tochter Marie Johanna wurde im Jahr 1730 die Ehegefährtin des Johann Isaac Calmet. Nach zehnjähriger Ehe verlor J. I. Calmet seine Frau, die ein längeres Dahinsiechen auf das Krankenlager fesselte, bis sie, nur 32 Jahre alt, der Schöpfer aus diesem vergänglichen Leben abrief[6].

Der Sohn Adam Jaques feierte Ende November 1734 mit Esther Girardin Hochzeit. Die Braut, Tochter des Bürgermeisters der Gemeinde, war ca. 17 Jahre alt. Aus der Ehe sind Kinder hervorgegangen. Im Alter von nur 37 Jahren starb Adam Jaques Desmarets.

Seine Witwe ging am 26. Januar 1751 mit dem Witwer Martin Ritz eine zweite Ehe ein.

Der aus der Ehe Desmarets/Girardin stammende Sohn Jean Jacob, geboren 1738, trat im Jahr 1761 mit Marie Magdalena Herlan (1740-1774) vor den Traualtar. Den Eheleuten ward 1769 die Tochter Esther geboren, die im Spätjahr 1790 mit dem 23-jährigen Johann Lacroix den Lebensbund einging.

Johann Lacroix und Esther Demarez sind die Eltern der im April 1791 geborenen Christina Lacroix, mit der Johann Jacob Giraud [GT Giraud (18)] im Jahre 1809 das Eheband knüpfte. Beide verließen mit ihren sieben Kindern 1835 die Heimat und wanderten nach Nordamerika aus. Sie siedelten in Boston, Erie-County, südlich von Buffalo, N.Y. USA.

Außer dem bereits erwähnten Jean Baptiste Desmarais lebte in der «Colonie» noch ein Desmarai mit denselben beiden Rufnamen. Er und sein Namensvetter sind in der von Amtmann Hemeling 1705 gefertigten Grundstücksauflistung zu finden. Der eine mit einem Besitz von ca. acht Morgen Land, der durch Grundstücksübernahme von dem abziehenden Michel Salingre überdurchschnittlich hoch angewachsen ist. Der andere Desmarai besaß ca. vier und 1/2 Morgen landwirtschaftlich zu nutzendes Land. Batiste Demars schied 1716, ca. 2 Jahre nach dem Tod seines Namensvetters im Alter von 60 Jahren, nach einer Krankheit, welche sich über 11 Wochen hinzog, aus dieser Welt. Er war mit Françoise Defive (de Fievre) verheiratet. Aus der Ehe der beiden sind mir drei Töchter bekannt geworden.
Am 25. März 1714 erhielt die 16-jährige Judith zusammen mit ihrer 15-jährigen Schwester Marie Jeanne die «Heilige Kommunion». Die Tochter Catherine, 15 Jahre alt, wurde an Ostern 1717 konfirmiert und durfte die besten Wünsche der Familie entgegennehmen. Ihre seit Februar in den Flitterwochen lebende Schwester Marie Jeanne, die den ledigen Sohn des verstorbenen Peter Herlan und dessen Ehefrau Marie de Lattre ehelichte, reihte sich auch mit ihrem Ehemann in die Reihe der Gratulanten ein.

Marie Desmarais geboren ca. 1648 ist am 7. Januar 1715, nach einer Krankheit von 8 Tagen, im Alter von 67 Jahren aus dieser Welt genommen worden. Ein halbes Jahr zurück waren "Jaques Sezain und seine Ehefrau Marie Desmarais" die einzigen Gevattersleute bei der Taufe des Abraham Dereux, die am 17. Juni 1714 abgehalten wurde.
Nach dem Tod seiner Ehefrau heiratete am 24. Mai 1716 in Spöck der verwitwete Jaques Sezain wieder. Im KbF I ist der Akt der Trauung nachrichtlich, ohne Namensnennung der Ehefrau, vermerkt. Etwas mehr als drei Jahre später erkrankte Jaques an einer "Brustentzündung". Der Tod erlöste ihn von seinem Leiden am 11. Dezember 1719 und am 12. Dezember wurde der Verstorbene zu seiner letzten Ruhestätte hinausgetragen. Am 9. März 1744 schloß die "Witwe Sezain um 7 Uhr in der Früh" im Alter von 77 Jahre die Augen für immer.

Barrié (Barié), Jean Jaques geboren ca. 1694, konfirmiert "le 2. Avril 1713, agée d'environ 18 années" (18 Jahre alt), gestorben 1753[1]. Er ist der Altvordere der Friedrichstaler Familien Barié. Der 1713[2] in Friedrichstal "sehr alt" verstorbene Jaques Barrier und dessen schon 1705[3] aus dieser Welt abgerufene Ehefrau Madelaine Guenan mögen vielleicht die Eltern des 1694 geborenen Jean Jaques Barrié gewesen sein, aber noch fehlt der Nachweis der Blutsverwandtschaft. Über die Herkunft des "sehr alt" verstorbenen Jaques Barrier gibt es keine Anhaltspunkte. Er wird urkundlich in dem Verzeichnis über die einzelnen Besitzverhältnisse der Kolonisten von Friedrichstal aufgeführt, das Amtmann Hemeling am 11. November 1705[4] aufstellte. Danach besaß Barrier 4 Morgen und 2 Viertel Land.

Ich gehe nicht soweit wie Collum[5], der den 1713 verstorbenen Jaques Barrier an die Spitze des Stammes stellt. Mir ist nicht bekannt, aus welchen Quellen Collum schöpfte, aber wenn ich das von ihm hierzu veröffentlichte Zahlenmaterial genau ansehe, erreichte der 1713 Verblichene ein Alter von 45 Jahren, das man aber mit Fug und Recht nicht als "sehr alt" auslegen kann.

Meiner Meinung nach muß die Frage offen bleiben, ob Jaques Barrier, der sich 1706 in Welschneureut mit Jeanne Bouquet wieder ehelich gebunden hatte, der von Collum bezeichnete Stammvater war.

Der ca. 1694 geborene Barrié vermählte sich 1717 in Schifferstadt/Pfalz mit Marie Deveine (1690-1767). Judith Deveine[6], eine jüngere Schwester der vorerwähnten Braut, lernte später bei ihren Besuchen in Friedrichstal, wo sich das frischgetraute Ehepaar häuslich niedergelassen hatte, den jungen Jean Giraud [GT Giraud (2)] kennen, der sie 1724 zum Traualtar führte.

Jean Philipp (1726[7]-1797)[8] Gerichtsmann, ein Sohn der in Schifferstadt getrauten Eheleute, heiratete 1756[9] Elisabeth Herlan, Tochter des Kirchenältesten Pierre Herlan. Dieser Jean Philippe Barrier ist der Stammvater der Friedrichstaler Löwenwirte.

Er wurde am 13. Januar 1726 getauft. Auch aus der Pfalz kamen seinerzeit die Verwandten zu dem freudigen Ereignis angereist. Jean Philipp de Fifre (de Fievre), Schwiegersohn des ebenfalls anwesenden Großvaters Anthoine Deveine, hob den Täufling über den Taufstein. Der «Gevatter» Jean Philipp war mit Marguerite, Schwester der Kindsmutter, seit 1725 verheiratet. Er bewirtschaftete als Pächter einen größeren Bauernhof in Merlheim/Pfalz (Mörlheim bei Landau).

Im Jahr 1797 erkrankte der Gerichtsmann Jean Philippe Barrier an einem Fieber und hauchte im Alter von 71 Jahren und 5 Monaten sein Leben aus. Seine Tochter Marie Elisabeth (1760[10]-1822)[11] knüpfte im Jahr 1781 das Eheband mit Jakob Giraud [GT Giraud (12)].

Die Nichte des vorerwähnten Johann Philipp Barrier, Esther (1745-1784), schloß 1766 den Ehebund mit Abraham Giraud [(1742-1828), GT Giraud (8)], Onkel des oben genannten Jacob Giraud.

Johann Philipp Barrier, Löwenwirt, Bruder der Marie Elisabeth, starb im Alter von 52 Jahren im Jahr 1819. Seine Schwester Marie Esther, in zweiter Ehe Jacob Manz angetraut, wurde im gleichen Jahr aus dieser Zeitlichkeit abgerufen.

Bei der Taufe des Wilhelm Friedrich Barieu im Jahr 1813, seine Eltern waren der Löwenwirt Johann Philipp Barieu und Christina geborene Gorenflo, stellten sich in die Rechte als Taufzeugen ein:» Heinrich, der ledige Sohn des Jacob Giraud und zwei im Quartier gelegene Offiziere H. Leopold von Kanarowsky, Lieutnant, sowie Ludwig Kramer, Fähnrich bei den unter dem löblichen K.K. Inf. Regt. Reuß Greutz Nr. 18 stehend«.

Der andere Sohn der Eheleute Barrié/Deveine, Onophrio (1731[12] -1770)[13], Schuhmacher von Beruf, warb um Katharina Barbara Calmez und ließ sich 1756[14] mit ihr trauen. Sein einziger Sohn Johann Michael (1768[15]-1833)[16] gründete 1792[17] mit Anna Katharina Gorenflo einen eigenen Hausstand. Nach dem Tod seiner Frau im Jahr 1810 ging der Kirchenälteste Barrier 1811 eine weitere Ehe mit Margarethe Rosine Seitz ein.
Aus der ersten Ehe des Joh. Michael Barrier interessiert nur die Tochter Christina (1803[18]-1863)[19], die ledigen Standes blieb. Christina schenkte 1827 einer Tochter[20] das Leben, die bei der Taufe den Ruf- und Familiennamen der Mutter bekam. Peter Heinrich Hornung führte die herangewachsene, 25-jährige Christina 1852 zum Traualtar und beide wurden das Elternpaar meiner Großmutter Luise Marie geborene Hornung. Meine Urgroßmutter Christina Barrier starb 1886[21].

Jean Jaques Barrier und sein Sohn Jean Philipp wurden auch in ehrenamtliche Gemeindeämter gewählt, die sie über viele Jahre hinweg pflichtbewusst und uneigennützig ausübten. Jean Philipp besaß in der Kronengaß ein Haus mit dem dazugehörigen Grund- und Boden von drei Viertel, 15 1/2 Ruten[22]. Onophre Barrier war gelernter Handwerker, Schuhmacher von Beruf. Er war nicht unvermögend und nannte sein eigen eine "einstöckigte Behaußung, samt Scheun, Hofreith, Gartten und Schweineställ, an der Linkenheimer Straß, einseits neben Abraham Herlan und andererseits Pierre Souz gelegen, Vornen auf bemelte Straß, und hinten auf das Schlagfeld stoßend", die seine Witwe nach "Inventarium und Eventual Separation" vom 19. November 1772[23] in die mit Peter Terraß eingegangene zweite Ehe zum Schätzwert von 520 fl einbrachte. Die damals aufgestellte Vermögensberechnung schloß mit dem Betrag von 1173 fl 36 1/2 kr ab. Sein Sohn Johann Michael verdiente den Lebensunterhalt für sich und seine Familie als Weber.

Die Barié-Ahnen meiner Großeltern sind zwischen 60 und 70 Jahre alt geworden. In die Betrachtung habe ich den frühen Tod des Onophre, der im Alter von nur 39 Jahren an einer auszehrenden Krankheit starb, nicht einbezogen, da es m.E. sich um einen besonderen Einzelfall in der Familie handelte.
Johann Philipp erkrankte an einem Fieber, das in der damaligen Zeit oft die Todesursache war und ihn innerhalb kurzer Zeit hinstreckte. Die Krankheit wurde durch Stechmücken übertragen, die ihre Brutstätten in den sumpfigen und verfaulten Gewässern der Rheinniederungen hatten.
Mit Ausnahme von Marie Deveine, die ein betagtes Alter von 77 Jahren erreichte, wurden die angeheirateten Ehefrauen zwischen 40 und 55 Jahre alt.

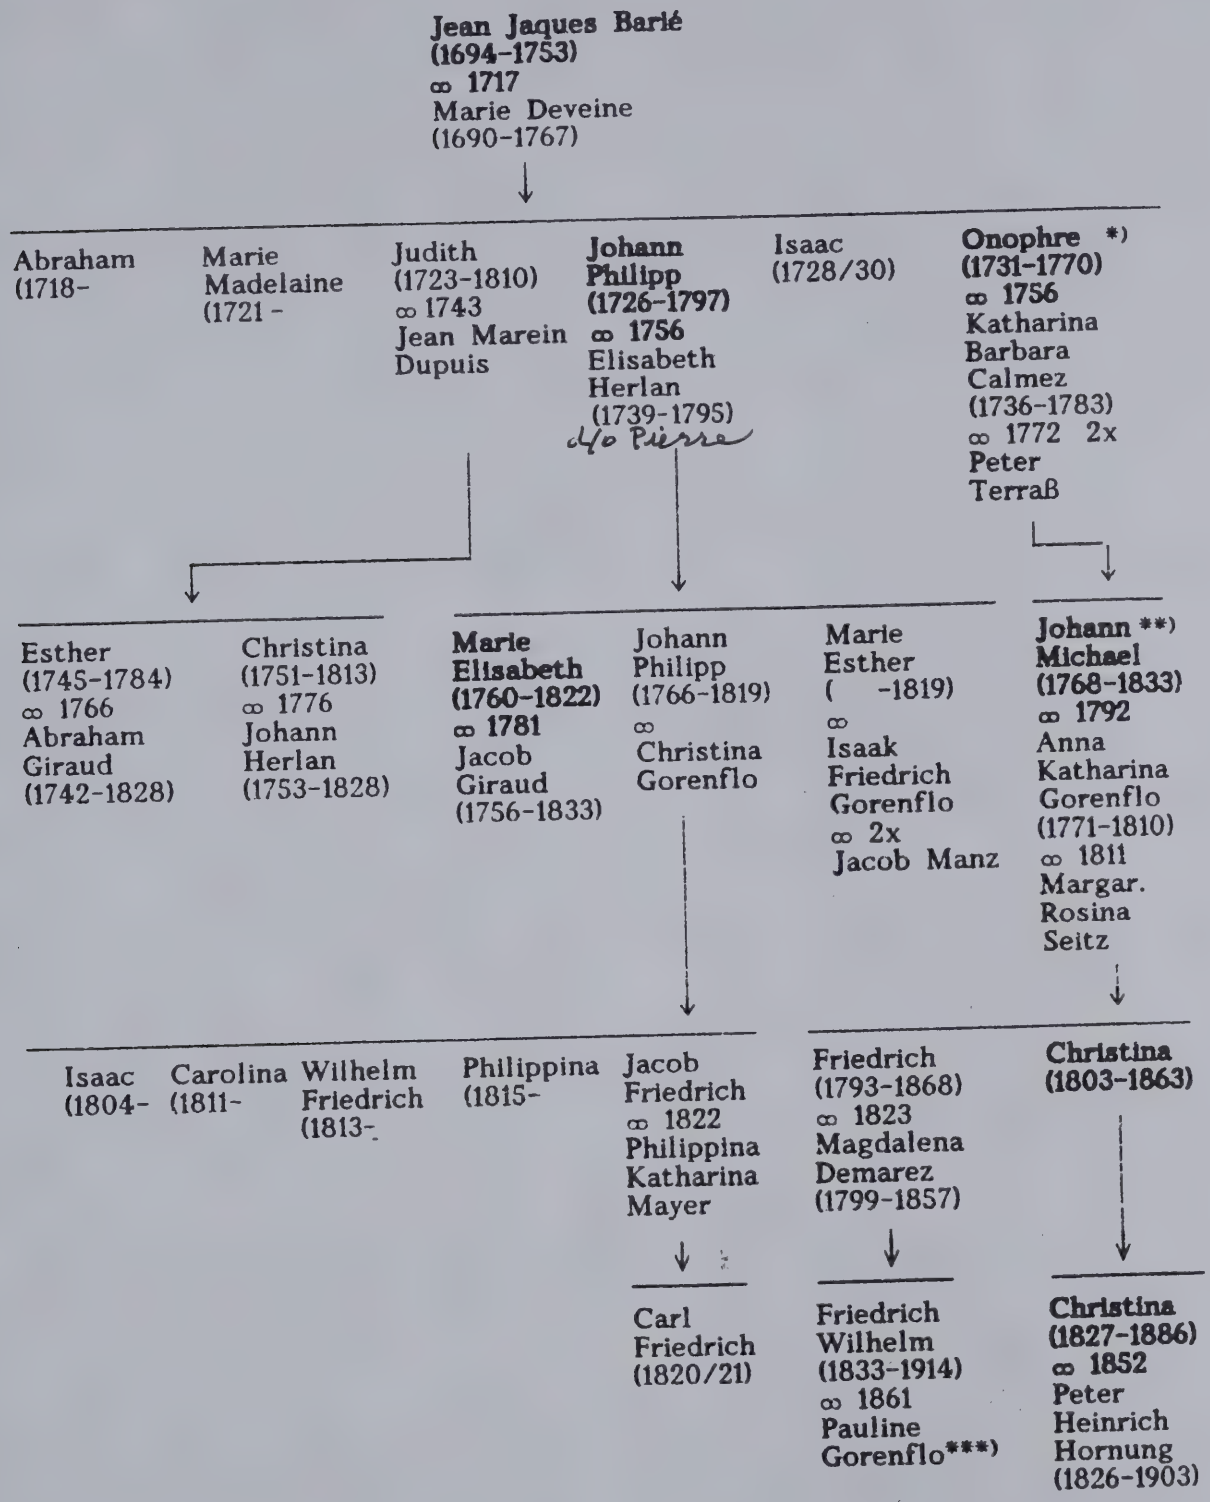
22) Hornung S. 314. 4 Viertel = 36 ar, 1 Rute = 3 m, 1 fl (Gulden) = 15 Batzen = 60 kr (Kreuzer).

23) GLA 229/30023.
"In der guten alten Zeit gab es aber auch erstaunlich billige Arbeitskräfte. In einer besonderen Rubrik ihres Berichts behandelt sie die ortsüblichen Gesinde-und Taglöhnerkosten. Ein Knecht erhielt jährlich an Geld neben 1 Gulden Haftgeld zwischen 30 und 40 Gulden, dazu 2 Hemden und 1 Paar Schuhe, die auf zusammen 3 Gulden und 24 Kreuzer veranschlagt wurden. Einer Magd wurde an Geld jährlich verabreicht sage und schreibe 15 Gulden, außerdem hatte sie Anspruch auf 8 Ellen halb flächsen, halb hänfen Tuch, auf Schuhe, Strümpfe und andere Kleidungsstücke im Gesamtwert von 11 Gulden, so daß ihr Gesamtlohn die Summe von 26 Gulden im Jahr nicht überstieg.
Nur in den arbeitsreichsten Zeiten, wo es nicht mehr anders ging, stellten die größeren Bauern nicht für den ganzen Tag, sondern nur eine bestimmte Anzahl von Stunden und zur Verrichtung ganz besonderer Arbeiten, Hilfskräfte ein, die offenbar auch nur sehr schwer aufzutreiben waren. Ihre Bezahlung war diese: Für 1 Morgen Frucht zu schneiden wurden vergütet 32 Kreuzer, 1 Laib Brot, 1 Maas Wein, beim Tobakbrechen erhielten sie 10 Kreuzer und Essen, wenn sie den ganzen Tag arbeiteten".
[Bericht der vom Markgrafen Karl Friedrich im Jahr 1778 eingesetzten Ortsbereisungskommission, auszugsweise. (s. auch Gl.u. Heimat, Jahrgang 1925)].



Anmerkungen:

*) zu den Geschwistern zählt noch Isaac geboren 1734.

) Johann Michael hatte noch drei Schwestern: Marie Margarete geboren 1757, Marie Magdalena geboren 1758 und Marie Esther geboren 1761.

) Gustav Ludwig (1864-, Schmied, ehelichte 1890 Magdalena Wilhelmina Giraud [GTG (43)]. Er war ein Sohn des Ehepaares Barlé/Pauline Gorenflo.

John Fredk Heigel, Upton, petition 3 Oct 1752 300 acres Broad and Saluda Vol I, pg. 46. Pro son George Plat 15:386. Haiglers of SC by William Hope Haigler,1975,Jacob has son (pet 19 Oct 1752) Peter 12, Philip 9, George 5. Jacob Hegeler (Haigler) and his family were passengers on the "Cunlift" in 1752. In his bounty petition, 19 Oct 1752, he stated, "He was desirous of living in a free country and that he had three sons with him (no wife)". He named his sons as follows: 1. Peter age 12, 2. Phillip age 9, and 3. George age 5. He was granted 200 acres on the bounty between the Santee and Savannah Rivers as requested. There were many births and deaths during the long voyage from Holland to Charleston. His wife may have died during transit. The country of origin on this family was Germany and they were from the Wurttemgerg area. I have reason to believe that they had emigrated from the Schafthausen Canton of Switzerland to Wurttemberg earlier but I am not ready to claim that at this time. I will advise you later on this. Friedrichstal

The village of Friedrichstal is north of Karlsruhe in the area ruled at the end of the 17th century by Markgraf Friedrich Magnus of Baden-Durlach. On December 10. 1699, he designated a piece of land for the village of Friedrichstal to be built the following year and encouraged the French-speaking Walloons living in Billigheim and Mörlheim to the west of the Rhein to resettle there.[1]

The original site plan for Friedrichstal included 25 houses. Family or land use lists for 1701, 1702, and 1703 inlcude 13-15 families, many of whom appear to be related. The names which appear on all three lists are: Jean Gerardin (or widow), Jacques Gorenflo, Abraham Herlan, Isaac Herlan, widow of Jean Pierre Herlan, and Jacques Simonet. Jacques Gorenflo was the Schultheiss or village leader until his death in 1710.[2]

Another family that lived in Friedrichstal was that of Jean Terrase. He married Esther Petillon in Winden, Germany. Esther was the daughter of Jacob (Jacque) Petillon and Maria Herland.[3] They had five children:[4]

HUSBAND Pierre HERLAN-641 Yr of Birth 1560
WIFE Marie DELATE-642 Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - Pierre HERLAN-641

Information from telephone conversation with Stuart Herlan.

There was another son who died in infancy and several daughters.

From Jack Stewart: The earliest known member of the Herlong (Herlan) family was Pierre Herlan born about 1560 in what was known as Spanish Netherlands. This area is the coastal region of present-day Belgium and also more recently called Flanders....Pierre Herlan married Marie DeLattre who was born in Houpliers, France, a village near Armantieres on the French-Belgian border...Pierre had relocated his family to the Pflaz region of Bavaria, because at least Issac was born in German....

WIFE - Marie DELATE-642

Information from Jack Stewart, 1304 Cardinal Dr., West Columbia, SC 29169.

Information from telephone conversation with Stuart Herlan.

Houpliers, France is a village near Armantieres on the French-Belgian border.

CHILD 2 - Marie HERLAN-1388

CHILD 3 - Pierre HERLAN-1389

CHILD 4 - Abraham HERLAN-676

Information from telephone conversation with Stuart Herlan.

CHILD 5 - Isaac HERLAN-895

Information from Stuart Herlan: Isaac Herlan, born 1678, and lived to be 90 years old. He had three wives. From the telephone conversation, it is understood that we are descended from his marriage to Marie Jeanne DeLong.

Stuart says he has a picture of the entire family and information on them also. There may be 12 children in this family. Stuart is descended from one of the sons but not our Jacob.

From Jack Stewart: "Isaac Herlan (ca 1688-1770) was born in Pfalz Baden, Germany, possibly the city now known as Baden-Baden. Isaac married Marie jeanne DeLong and had one known son. Isaac founded the village of Friedrichstal, about seven miles north of Karlsruhe, and was the Burgemeister (Mayor) of that place. The son, Jacob Herlan who was born in Friedrichstal, was to become the progenitor of the South Carolina Herlongs. He married Mary-Susannah DuPuis, daughter of Abraham DuPuis, in 1744."

Church records from Friedrichstal, Germany researched in 1997 by Melanie Nolan revealed that Isaac Herlong did marry Marie Jeanne DeLong first and the births of five children are found. Marie Jeanne DeLong died several months after the birth of Jacob and Isaac Herlan married two more times and had seven more known children, one with the second wife and six with the third wife. We are

HUSBAND - Isaac HERLAN-895

Information from Stuart Herlan: Isaac Herlan, born 1678, and lived to be 90 years old. He had three wives. From the telephone conversation, it is understood that we are descended from his marriage to Marie Jeanne DeLong.

Stuart says he has a picture of the entire family and information on them also. There may be 12 children in this family. Stuart is descended from one of the sons but not our Jacob.

From Jack Stewart: "Isaac Herlan (ca 1688-1770) was born in Pfalz Baden, Germany, possibly the city now known as Baden-Baden. Isaac married Marie jeanne DeLong and had one known son. Isaac founded the village of Friedrichstal, about seven miles north of Karlsruhe, and was the Burgemeister (Mayor) of that place. The son, Jacob Herlan who was born in Friedrichstal, was to become the progenitor of the South Carolina Herlongs. He married Mary-Susannah DuPuis, daughter of Abraham DuPuis, in 1744."

Church records from Friedrichstal, Germany researched in 1997 by Melanie Nolan revealed that Isaac Herlong did marry Marie Jeanne DeLong first and the births of five children are found. Marie Jeanne DeLong died several months after the birth of Jacob and Isaac Herlan married two more times and had seven more known children, one with the second wife and six with the third wife. We are descended from the first marriage.

CHILD 5 - Jacob HERLONG-1116

Jacob Herlong and wife were in Orangeburgh Dist. SC by 1754. Information from Stuart Herlan, a descendent of a brother to Jacob, says that Jacob was baptized in the Walloon Church (French Reformed Church). Stuart also says that the name was Herlan in Germany and that Jacob's father, Isaac Herlan, posted his bond so Jacob could leave Germany. The family sailed on the ship Cunliffe to England and then to America in September 1752. The passenger list for the Cunliffe says that Jacob had with him his wife and 2 children, Catherine 7 and Magdalin 4. Further records of this family are found in the Giessendanner Record which is printed in Salley's History of Orangeburg Co., SC.

Examination of records from Kirchenbuch der evangelischen Kirche in 1997

HUSBAND Isaac HERLAN-895 Yr of Birth 1678
WIFE Marie Jeanne DELONG-904 Yr of Birth 1679

by Melanie Nolan revealed birth, marriage and death dates for the Herlan and DuPuis families prior to 1752 and confirmed what was said by Stuart Herlan.

Family tradition says that there were four other sons who were killed at the Battle of Cowpens, SC in the Rev. War.

From Jack Stewart: " The son, Jacob Herlan who was born in Friedrichstal, was to become the progenitor of the South Carolina Herlongs. He married Mary-Susannah DuPuis, daughter of Abraham DuPuis, Sr., in 1744. They became the parents of four daughters born in Friedrichstal; Maria-Catharina born December 7, 1745, Maria-Magdalin born about 1748, Rebekka born August 17, 1749 and Elizabeth born Jul 7, 1751." Church records revealed this to be true with the exact birth date of Maria-Magdalin being October 5, 1747.

WIFE Anne Barbe LAMBERT-701 Yr of Birth 1713

HUSBAND - Pierre HERLAN-705

Relationship: Marriage record of Pierre and Anne Barbe states that Pierre is the son of Isaac Herlan

Birth: Friedrichstal church records

Marriage: Friedrichstal church records

Death: Friedrichstal church records

NOTE: Names and birthdates of children are from Friedrichstal church records

WIFE - Anne Barbe LAMBERT-701

Birth: Friedrichstal church records which also states that she is the daughter of Jean Lambert of France

CHILD 1 - Elizabeth HERLAN-1411

CHILD 2 - Marie Madelaine HERLAN-1412

CHILD 3 - Jacob HERLAN-1413

CHILD 4 - Rebecca HERLAN-1414

CHILD 5 - Jean Pierre HERLAN-1415

CHILD 6 - Unknown HERLAN-1457

This record was so hard to read that I could not determine either the name or sex of this child.

CHILD 7 - Jean Pierre HERLAN-1458

Relationship: Birth record states that Jean Pierre is the son of Pierre Herlan and Anne Barbe Lambert his wife. Apparently he was named for the child who died in 1749.

CHILD 8 - Jean HERLAN-1459

Relationship: Another Jean! However, the birth record does state son of Pierre Herlan and Anne Barbe Lambert his wife. Jean's first name may be Johann, but the handwriting was impossible to read.

Hi Melanie,

The GIRAUD book was compiled by Theo Giraud in 1993. His address at that time was:

Theo Giraud
Wiesenstrasse 12
76397 Stutensee-Bl. [Blankenloch]
Germany

It's a big book -- 350 pages approximately 8-1/2" X 11" in size. The first large section [Buch I] deals with Theo's Giraud lineage. "Buch 2" [pp 202-273] deals with various families, including Hornung [1, 2, 5], Barie, Borel, Brunk, Calmez, Demarez, Desreux, Deveine, Gorenflo [1-4], Herlan [1-3], Lacroix, Maitre, Ratz, Siegrist, Terras & Thibaut -- all in Theo's direct line. Pages 274-322 deal with Dupuis, Gassmann, Girardin, Gorenflo [5-10], Hengst, Herlan [4-5], Hornung [3-4], Karle, Mahler, Manz, Maurer, Meyer, Reuther, Roux, Schanz, Schoenthal & Sutz.

Pages 323-337 are a recap of the village in 1785 showing land owned by those early residents. In reviewing these pages, I didn't find anything pertaining to the Dupuis family.

Pages 338-349 contain earliest church records, 1702-1747 -- primarily the early marriages.

I have translated the Dupuis section and will include it is this email.

Translation from Peter & Luise Marie [nee Hornung] Giraud, by Theo Giraud, 1993.
"P. 274:

III. Remaining Lineages.
Dupuis, Fussler, Gassmann, Girardin, Gorenflo, Hengst, Herlan, Hornung, Karle, Mahler, Manz, Maurer, Meyer, Reuther, Roux, Schanz, Schoenthal, Sutz.

DUPUIS, Abraham.

Abraham Dupuis, son the Robert Dupuis, French refugee from Yverdon, married on the 9th of October 1714 Susanne Gorenflo, daughter the first Mayor of the community and widow of the late Jean Baptiste Desmarais of the Carlsbacher-court. Robert Dupuis, father of the Friedrichstaler Dupuis, after fleeing to Switzerland in 1685, became a citizen of Gressy near Yverdon and acquired a house in Yverdon, where he had a forge and pursued the trade of blacksmith.

In a record dated 10 July 1730, published in "The German Huguenot, vintage 54, No. 4", December 1990, it is stated that "the esteemed Robert

Dupuis, French refugee, resident of Yverdon, has just now lost his life through an unforeseen accident. He was killed when the wheels of his wagon ran over his head, rolling over both eyes. The cart, which was loaded with hay, came from the meadows above the mills, etc." The same record mentions a son Jean Pierre Dupuis, who lives in Chamblon, as well as "a brother and two sisters who live outside of our country". [1]

His son Abraham Dupuis moved to Friedrichstal, where he held the office, among others, of "Justicier" [Judge] in the community and as Schoolmaster instructed the children of Friedrichstal for many years. He died in the year 1759.

His son Abraham, born in 1717, married Susanne Herlan in 1746, who was the daughter of Isaac Herlan and his late wife Marie Bourquain.

On the 23rd April 1743 Jean Marein [Martin] Dupuits and Judith Barie joined hands in matrimony. The bride was the daughter of Jacques Barrie and Marie de Veine. The baptismal register entry of the birth [compiler: and parents] of Johann Martin Dupuits has not been found.

Thus, I do not dare to associate the above named [Jean/Johann Martin] person to the family of Abraham Dupuis and his wife Susanne Gorenflo, whose descendants are not numerous. A descendant, a practicing doctor, is living today in Berlin.

[1] A Yverdon, Switzerland, Legal Record of 1730, from Medical Dr. Ludwig Dupuis."

[Translated 3 Aug 1995 by Mary J. Riter]

As for the parentage of Jean Martin Dupuis, although his birth is not included in the church records, he was confirmed there in 1732, which supports the conclusion that he was about 15 or 16 years old. He would have been born some 9-12 months after Abraham Sr. married Susanne Gorenflo. Because there were no other Dupuis families in Friedrichstal, and because Abraham Jr. was confirmed in the same church two years later, I conclude that Jean Martin is the son of Abraham Dupuis Sr. and his wife.

Hope this helps!

Mary

Subject: Young SHORT's land in Alcorn Co. MS
Date: Monday, March 16, 1998 6:26 AM

I'm finally getting organized (at least a little bit) from our trip to LA and MS. The following is a list of all the land that I could find that was ever owned by Young SHORT in Alcorn Co. There is also one section (the first one listed) that is in present day Tishomingo. All of this land was in Tishomingo at the time that Young owned it, as Alcorn was not organized until 1870. The records, however, are Alcorn Co. records.

The rest of the land was in Young's estate, but I found no records for the purchase of any of this land. Apparently it must have been recorded in the missing books. I guess that we could try Tishomingo Co. to see if any of those books are there. As I recall, Deed books B-D and H-L are missing. I may be wrong about the exact books, but there were two gaping holes. Here's the land in Young's estate, all in Alcorn Co.

Description
NE4 S36 T2S R8E near Glen, s.e. of Corinth and Farmington
SE4 S36 T2S R8E near Glen, s.e. of Corinth and Farmington
SW4 S14 T3S R8E near Glen, s.e. of Corinth and Farmington - sold to his son Burrell -- the only one of Young's sons to get any of his land which was sold at auction after his death. Burrell bought this land for much less than the other buyers paid for similar pieces. It must have been tacitly agreed that others would not bid on this piece.
NW4 S34 T3S R8E near Jacinto
5 acres of NE4 S34 T3S R8E near Jacinto - where Lewis Short had lived
SE4 S6 T3S R9E s.e. of Corinth and Farmington
NW4 S7 T3S R9E s.e. of Corinth and Farmington (Burrell bought this land and immediately transferred it to someone else.)

Just in case there is anyone on this list who hasn't had experience reading land descriptions here's an example of how to interpret them. Land is divided by survey into sections, townships and ranges. Ranges are numbered west to east; townships are numbered north to south. There are 36 sections (640 acres each) in each township/range intersection. So NW4 S7 T3S R9E means the northwest quarter of section 7 township 3 north, range 9 east.

Hello Pat and HALE list....

Hope this helps. Below is a paragraph from Roots in Virginia by Nathanial Claiborne HALE, pg. 11 relating to the above question.

"Richard HALE of Bedford who died in 1784, had tile following children: Sarah, who married Elijah HATCHER; John, who married Nancy OVERSTREET; Elizabeth; James; Martha; Richard; Francis; and Powell. They left numerous descendants later locating in Franklin County on the Blackwater and Piggs Rivers, especially John who married Nancy OVERSTREET. She was a daughter of Thomas OVERSTREET, an early resident and Indian fighter during the depredations of the supposedly friendly Cherokees in 1757. Thomas OVERSTREET died February 26, 1792 and left the following children: John, Mary, William, Elizabeth and Nancy the wife of John HALE. John and Nancy (OVERSTREET) HALE, of this line, thus perpetuated among their HALE descendants in Franklin County the given names of Thomas, John, William and Overstreet, as well as Francis, Richard, James and Powell."

Subject: Leaving in the 1700's
Date: Wednesday, December 10, 1997 4:31 PM

Jeri,

There were many reasons for people leaving Germany in the 1700's. Here are a few of them, and I offer no opinions, just reasons given in resource materials. There were two economic depressions in the Wurttemberg area, leaving those families on the primarily agricultural economy without money and work, therefore without the means to feed and care for extended families. When royalty from other countries offered incentives for the farmers to move onto their lands, such offers were sometimes readily accepted. During this time, Hungary/Austria was one such country. The Wurttemberg people (and others as well)traveled down the Danube River (see Danubeschwabians) on boats or by foot to repopulate farmland devistated by years of conquering and pillage from wondering armies. Similar situations were offered in Romania, Russia, and even India. The Wurttemberg people retained their Germanic heritage, schools, language and traditions, even after centuried of settlement in other lands. There were a variety of things offered to the new settlers which included land at substantially reduced prices, sometimes "starting" money, tools, domestic animals, travel money. These were all very modest in amount and the offers varied greatly with time and place, but they were enough to look good to those in need.

Another reason, and probably one of the most important as far as travel to the Americas was concerned, was religious persecution. This took a tremendous toll of both the Catholic a Protestant people and was a widespread problem throughout Europe. It ruined economies, caused wars, disease and death, and went on for several centuries. The 1700's saw a dramatic increase in Protestant immigration to North America, especially to Pennsylvania, where records were well kept (see the Penn. State Archives Site).

The average person at that time was a "serf" and was considered the property of the rulers. Religious belief, living places, even professions were decided by the rulers, and laws could be changed at any time. Changes in governments, manditory military service, land ownership regulations, the beginnings of the Industrial Revolution, taxation and marketing changes for goods were are in a state of flux, causing some to seek a new start elsewhere, and "new" modes of transportation open to the average person was making it a possibility for some. Hope this helps. Rita beowulf@dmci.net

German Research at Libraries and Archives in Baden-Wuerttemberg

By: Lisa Petersen

I'd like to share my experiences from a research trip to Baden & Wuerttemberg in December 1995 and offer some advice for others contemplating going to Germany to look for their ancestors. Although I am from Honolulu and have done most of my research there, I made plans for this trip (my second) while visiting my boyfriend in Bremerhaven, Germany. I took the train and stayed in hotels during the week of December 10, 1995. First, the advice, then the trip story, and finally, some addresses of archives and libraries with their hours.

ADVICE:

- Do as much research as possible on your German ancestors BEFORE you go to Germany. Compile documents and oral histories from family members, then go to your local LDS (Mormon) Family History Center (FHC) and look at German church records on microfilm. They have copies of almost all microfilms held by German archives, and it is MUCH more convenient to view them in the US than in Germany. You might also want to look at US censuses, passenger lists, emigration indexes, naturalization records, etc., available at LDS, National Archives and, in some cases, public and university libraries. In the 3 years prior to my first research trip to Germany, I spent over 1000 hours looking at microfilms, and am really glad I did.

- Learn German! Obviously you'll need to know the old Fraktur script used in pre-WWII records and books. For that, look for a guide to the old script at the LDS FHC or in books such as 'If I Can You Can Decipher German Records' at your local public library. For modern German, any teach-yourself book or tapes will provide you with enough German to find a hotel room, but they don't teach you what you need to know to do research in a library or archive. You should be able to say things like "I would like to look at this book," "Is there a microfilm machine available tomorrow?" and "I need change for the copy machine." Consider hiring a tutor. I got one once by calling my local Board of Education.

- Write in advance to make an appointment. Some libraries/archives have only a few chairs and/or microfilm machines, so it's best to reserve ahead of time. The first time I visited the Lutheran Church Archives in Stuttgart, I didn't have an appointment to use a microfilm machine and was told there wouldn't be one available for 5 months!

- Find out the hours of libraries/archives/other places you're going to visit. Some places are only open mornings, or afternoons, or 1-2 days a week, so you will have to plan your trip around that.

- Expect to pay a small fee to use a library or microfilm machine, something on the order of 10DM per day. (1DM ~ US$0.67)

- Allow plenty of time and keep your schedule flexible. Unless you're fluent in German, it takes a lot of time to look at a book, so it's better if you're not rushed. You might find, in spite of careful planning, that a place is open in the mornings when you're there in the afternoon. Can you come back tomorrow? Germans (and other Europeans) tend to assume that a visitor to their town will be staying a few days, not just a few hours.

- Be prepared to be disappointed. Places might be closed, staff might be unhelpful, the copy machine might be broken, or they just don't have anything on your ancestors.

- For further advice on doing German research, see the German Genealogy FAQ's.

TRIP STORY:

Visit with the Lutheran Minister & a Genealogist in my Ancestors' Hometown

I'd already done a lot of research on my ancestors, who came from Altlussheim across the Rhein River from Speyer, using the microfilm copies of the church records at the LDS FHC in Honolulu. Unfortunately, however, LDS didn't have 2 of the 3 Familienbuecher (family registers) on microfilm, and a researcher-cousin in Altlussheim told me that the originals were still in the minister's office. I wrote a letter to the minister (in my lousy German, addressed simply to Evangelischer Pfarramt, 68804 Altlussheim) to ask if I could see the 2 volumes in his office during the week of December 11 (in Germany, the week starts on Monday), and I enclosed a SASE. I wasn't expecting any reply because I'd heard that most ministers are 'too busy' or just not interested in genealogy. Much to my surprise, he wrote back right away and told me to come on 11 Dec from 9-12 am. When I arrived, I showed him the long list of surnames I was researching from Altlussheim, and instead of giving me the Familienbuecher, he told me about a man in the town who has entered all the information from the Familienbuecher into his computer (his attitude was 'why bother to look at the originals?'). He drove me to Mr. Ballreich's house and dropped me off. What an impressive collection of genealogy he had - at least 50 2-inch notebooks filled with copies of the Familienbuecher, stories about people who emigrated, photos of descendants and gravestones in cemeteries (he makes regular trips to the US tracing Altlussheim emigrants). He intends to write a book about all Altlussheim people who emigrated, not just to America. We spent 2-3 hours going over my information, and he printed out anything I wanted from his computer. While it's nice to meet a genealogist like this, it's still better to look at the original records.

Lutheran Church Archives for Baden, Karlsruhe

I didn't know, and still don't know, what they have at the Evangelisches Landeskirchliches Archiv (LKA) in Karlsruhe that could be useful to my research. I went to the small library there and was told that all 5 seats were reserved and I would have to come back another day. The archivist felt bad about kicking me out, so she tried to help by suggesting I go to the LDS FHC. I didn't come to Germany to go to a LDS library, and I tried to explain that I had already spent a lot of time at LDS libraries in America. Then she told me that LDS has everything they have, so they (LKA) wouldn't have anything for me. That might be true, or it might not. She also gave me some pieces of paper, some in German some in English, listing the fees the archive charges for research and how to send a written request for information on a German ancestor.

Baden State Public Library, Karlsruhe

Then I went across the street to the Badische Landesbibliothek (Baden State Library). You don't need an appointment here, and there are plenty of tables and chairs. In the Hauptlesesaal (Main Reading Room), there is a section of books on Baden and Wuerttemberg, including Heimatbuecher (town histories) Ortssippenbuecher (town genealogies), some published genealogies, and other related books. When I wanted to make some photocopies, I discovered the machines don't take coins and I had to buy a copier card for 2DM (that's 10 copies) from the cashier downstairs. Most of the library's books are kept on closed shelves, and a library card is required to request a book. Since I don't have many ancestors from Baden, I spent all my time in the Hauptlesesaal and did not look at the catalog or try to get a library card.

Ludwigsburg State Archives, Ludwigsburg

Located just a few miles north of Stuttgart, the Staatsarchiv Ludwigsburg (SAL) holds emigration permits issued in the state of Wuerttemberg. To legally emigrate, Germans had to pay their debts and apply for permission (and pay a fee for that). Many people left without permission, as apparently most of my ancestors did, so I found only 1 emigration permit out of 6 people I was looking for. For each person, you need to know the year of emigration and the town of origin. Check the 'Wuerttemberg Emigration Index' by Trudy Schenk et al. (available at many public libraries and LDS FHC's) or the Hamburg Passenger Lists, among other sources, if you don't already know where your ancestor came from. The SAL has recently moved from the old location at the Schloss (castle) to the center of town, and the Lesesaal is not easy to find. I was lucky to meet an off-duty archive employee who took me to the right place. The archivist spoke nice English, and she helped me fill out the user permit (name, address, purpose of research, etc.). No appointment was necessary (although I don't know if that's true for the microfilm machine), there was no charge for the visit, and she even didn't even charge me for the photocopies she made for me.

Lutheran Church Archives for Wuerttemberg, Stuttgart

The Evangelisches Landeskirchlichesarchiv (LKA) in Stuttgart has a library and microfilm copies of record books from Lutheran churches in Wuerttemberg. (Note: LKA in Stuttgart has only Wuerttemberg records. For records from other German states, go to other archives.) The library has a small collection of genealogy-related books in the main room - no appointment necessary, and you can browse the shelves yourself. Photocopies are 0.20DM, and you pay all at once before you leave. If you want to look at microfilms, it's best to make an appointment. As mentioned above, the first time I was at the LKA in March 95, they said there wouldn't be an appointment available until August. There are only 3 microfilm reader-printer machines, so it's not a wonder that they're hard to get. In December when I was there for the second time, I got lucky in 2 ways: there was a machine available, and I found that they have microfilms of church records that LDS doesn't have! (Apparently, these were just recently microfilmed by LKA, so LDS will eventually get copies.) So, the archivist, who was very patient with my lousy German, set me up with the 2 films on a microfilm reader, and I found my ancestor right away. After an hour and a half, and 6 copies (at 1DM each), I had to leave. I had to pay to use the microfilm machine - they charge 2DM per hour, 6DM per half day, or 10DM per day.

Wuerttemberg State Library

The Wuerttembergische Landesbibliothek (WLB) in Stuttgart is much like the Baden library in Karslruhe. It has a Hauptlesesaal (reading room) with a good collection of Heimatbeucher, Ortsippenbuecher, published genealogies and general reference books, and if you want to see the books on closed shelves, you have to get a library card. I spent many hours in the Hauptlesesaal and found a lot of useful information. I also wanted to see a collection of typewritten documents kept on the closed shelves, so I asked about a library card. It was so easy, I couldn't believe it, and it only took 5 minutes. I filled out a form with my name, address and birthdate, and then an employee entered the info into a computer. I showed my passport as identification, and when I explained I was just a tourist, he gave me a card anyway, presumably good only for use in the library. Then I went to the card catalog and looked up the author of the typewritten manuscripts to get the call number. They have their own call number system, not like Library of Congress or Dewey Decimal. Then I had to request the book by typing my library card number, my birthdate, and book's call number into a computer, and I needed help from the librarian for this (she told me, in German, what to type, when to hit the enter key, etc.). It only took a couple minutes. After the request went in, the documents appeared in the Hauptlesesaal 30 minutes later. Yippee. Then I was busy at the photocopy machine (0.20DM per copy).

Baden-Wuerttemberg Genealogy Society Library

Located only a few blocks from the WLB, the Verein fuer Familien- und Wappenkunde fuer Wuerttemberg und Baden has a very good collection of books. They have general reference books, including books from the American side such as 'Germans to America,' plus numerous Ortssippenbuecher and Heimatbuecher, about 30 shelves' worth of published genealogies, and 100 or so notebooks filled with Ahnentafeln (ancestor lists) submitted by members. They also have a few things for sale, such as a book listing surnames in Baden & Wuerttemberg being researched by genealogists. The library, by the way, is open to non- members and there is no charge for a visit, but it is open only on Thursday and Friday in the late afternoon, so you might have to plan your trip around that. They have a photocopy machine, and I think the charge is 0.20DM per copy.

Generation No. 1

1. PIERRE HERLAN b. Abt 1640 Houplines, Flanders, FR, d. Abt 1690 Kloster Haimbach, Morlheim, Pfalz, DEU. He m. MARIE DELATTE 1671 in DEU/FR?.

Notes:

The name Herlong is a derivation of the Swiss surname Herlan. The Herlan family came from Flanders and first lived in Germany in Billigheim, County of Bargzbien, in the state of Pfalz (later Rhineland-Pfalz) in southern Germany on the Rhine River. They were there by 1723 (near city of Landau, Germany) and later moved to Spryer, Germany. German states moved back and forth under French and German rules.

During the early 17th century, many Swiss (Calvinists) and Germans (Lutheran) emigrated to the colony of South Carolina. They were not a people of wealth and stature but rather the poorer classes looking for new opportunity in the newest American colony. These people came in larger bodies mostly from the German provinces bordering the Rhine including Switzerland, Baden, Palantinate and Wurtenberg.

The first group came in 1735 and settled in Amelia twp of Orangeburg Co., SC. The second group came in 1736 and the third in 1737. Much of what is known of these people comes from the church records of Pastor Giessendanner who came with the third group. He d. in 1738 but his nephew continued the record keeping. The Germans continued to emigrate to this area until 1769. Most emigrants were farmers.

Many could not afford passage on the ship and were sold as servants to various settlers for 5 to 6 sterling pounds. This was the case for both men and women. After 3 to 5 years they were released from servitude.

Jacob Herlan, son of Isaac Herlan b.(1678-1770), emigrated to America in the the 1700's to Orangeburg Co, SC. There are at least two legends...one that Jacob emigrated with French Huguenots to South Carolina and another that Jacob emigrated with a brother to Maryland and that the brother stayed there while Jacob went to South Carolina. Jacob's descendants changed their surname to Herlong eventually.

Isaac Herlan, Jr. and Peter Herlan sons of Isaac Herlan (1678-1770) had descendants (two more generations) that emigrated to America. An older son could not find employment in his field, being a barrel maker, so he and two of his sister's came to America in 1832. The next year these three children persuaded their mother, she was a widow with young children, that the rest of the family should come over also. So she and three sons came in 1833. Some of this family settled in western New York state and some went further west to Wisconsin and possibly Michigan. This group of descendants did not change their surname and are still Herlan's to my knowledge.

Abraham DuPuis, Sr (father-in-law of Jacob Herlan) is believed to have come to America with Jacob and Mary Susannah.

According to "A Short Sketch of the Herlong Family" by Ruby (Bela) Padgette Herlong, Ph. D., "authenticated information states that Jacob Herlan settled in Orangeburg District of South Carolina in the early seventeen hundreds." Jacob supposedly had 4 daughters, two that d. before journey to USA

During the 1750's the French and British were fighting in the colonies to the north and the French had aligned themselves with the Cherokee nation. At the urging of the French the Cherokee's conducted a campaign against the settlers in South Carolina and many settlers suffered during the Cherokee War of 1759-0. One Jacob Herling served under Captain Lewis Golson in that war. According to the "Indian Affairs Book and Council Journals" Jacob served under John Chevillette.

Legend has it that Jacob had five sons, four of these sons d. in the at the Battle of Cowpens, an American victory during the American Revolution. On Jan. 17, 1781, Brig. Gen. Daniel Morgan (1736-1802) with about 950 men, met a British force of 1,100 under Col. Banastre Tarleton at the Cow Pens (former cattle-aising center), 9 miles northeast of Cowpens, SC (present Spartanburg, SC).

Notes
Henry Conrad was a farmer, Methodist minister and founder of Emory Chapel, near Saluda, SC.

According to "A Short Sketch of the Herlong Family" by Ruby Padgette Herlong Ph.D., Henry Conrad built the first brick home in Edgefield District. The making of bricks and building labor were provided by slaves. The house had a winding staircase built in Augusta. The house was featured in the "State" Sunday, Oct 15, 1978.
